

Basecamp Charte

The Basecamp is replacement for the traditional Piscine which take place 100% online and off-site. To start the Basecamp correctly, we ask you to read a few rules that have to be followed (these rules are also applicable after the Basecamp):

General behaviour

- Respect for others is a key value at 19. We do not tolerate discrimination. Insults or behaviour that are misogynistic, racist, homophobic, transphobic, handiphobic or more generally that result in the exclusion of others are grounds for exclusion of the Basecamp.
- Any coder or candidate of 19 must comply with the decisions of the staff of 19, which includes the pedago team, the IT team, the administrative team, trainees and volunteers, as well as the cleaning team. Any lack of respect towards any member of the staff of 19 is subject to sanctions.
- (- Drug use is prohibited on the campus. Anyone who violates this rule will be excluded immediately and definitely.)*
- (- The consumption of alcohol may be authorized by the staff of 19. Apart from these authorisations, alcohol is prohibited on the campus.)*
- It is forbidden to bring outsiders to the discord.
- Any behaviour that harms the work and tranquility of other persons is generally forbidden.

IT resources

- Users are responsible for the security of their ID within the network of 19.
- More generally, users are responsible for the use they make of computer resources and tools, as well as for all information made available to others.
- Users must not abuse the IT resources that are made available to them.
- It is prohibited to enter a computer (network) in an unauthorised manner.
- Users are required to respect the equipment and premises made available to them.
- It is forbidden to use the identifiers of a third party or to use any way that would hide the real identity of the user.

Protection of personal data

- The information collected by 19 is the only information required for the interaction of the user of 19 and its platform.
- This information is subject to computer processing and is intended for the administration of 19.
- In accordance with European legislation in force, the users of the platform 19 have the right to access, rectify and anonymise the information that concerns them.

Sanctions

- Access to resources and more generally to the campus may be denied to anyone who has acted contrary to this charter.
- The conditions allowing to regain access to computer resources as well as to the campus will be defined by the staff of 19.
- 19 reserves the right to initiate criminal proceedings regardless of any internal sanctions that may have been implemented.
